100-bed auxiliary hospital planned for St. Albert

St. Albert air cadets attending summer camp at Canadian Forces Base Penhold were: (left to right standing) Brian Willis, Robert MacPherson, Keith Russell, Tony Rapati, Claude Carlgan, Bill Eschak, Cameron Willis and Arnold Bendick. (Sitting) David Forbes, Barry Fildes, L. J. White, Dave White, Craig Tomash and Robert Poulin.

Air Cadets attend summer camp

by Marcel Bergevin
Commanding Officer

Thirteen cadets attended summer camp at Canadian Forces Base Penhold this year from St. Albert Squadron 533 and judging by the tanned faces that returned they had a pretty good time. This must have been one of the most successful camps the local squadron has participated in. The cadets returned with two of the five major awards, plus a number of crests, all of which they can be justly proud of when you consider at each camp, of two weeks duration, there are in excess of 800 cadets from across Canada.

Sgt. R. J. Fildes won the coveted "Top Cadet" award in the Junior NCO's course, and a recommendation for promotion to Flight Sergeant Cpl. C. R. Carlgan was no less distinctive in gaining "Top Cadet" in the proficiency award, both cadets receiving their commemorative shields from the camp commanding officer at the final parade.

Also LACs J. R. MacPherson and A. F. Rapati were recommended from their respective flights for interviews for the award of "Top 1st Year Cadet," this too is quite an honor when you consider there are some 40 cadets in each flight.

Representing the squadron on the athletic side were Sgt. D. S. White; Cpl. Carlgan and C. G. Willis, and LAC Rapati in the swim meet.

Sgt. White, Cpl. Carlgan and LACs W. E. Eschak and Rapati took bush camp training. All seemed to have had a good time with plenty of tales to relate.

A little bird also said that the band at camp this year "was the best they had ever heard" - maybe that was because 533 squadron had so many bandmen in there? - well done bandsmen Cpls. Keith Russell and Willis; and LACs D. T. Forbes; J. R. MacPherson; Robert Poulin; and Brian Willis.

The officers of 533 Squadron extend their sincere congratulations to all the cadets attending camp, not only did you uphold the good name of the squadron, - you put 533 Squadron out in front.

St. Albert could well be on its way to becoming the medical hub of the area north of Edmonton.

Town Council learned Monday that a 100-bed auxiliary hospital will be constructed in St. Albert if a suitable site can be obtained.

Council was asked for assistance in locating a site by M. R. Parker, chairman of the board of the Edmonton and Rural Auxiliary Hospital and Nursing Home District No. 24.

Mr. Parker, in his letter, said the board "would be most appreciative of the opportunity of building an extended care facility in the St. Albert area."

He said the board felt it would complement the active treatment hospital now under construction and the Youville Nursing Home and tend to reduce the costs of both.

St. Albert also has two medical clinics and the Sturgeon Health Unit also is located here.

Council will contact the board in search of further information concerning the proposal.

Mr. Parker said the board turned to council when negotiations conducted over the past year and a half with parties in the town failed to produce a site.

"If we had got the land we wanted, it is possible that the hospital would be under construction right now."

Mr. Parker said the St. Albert hospital may have gotten preference over one that is now being built in Grandview in South Edmonton. He said the district also has land earmarked for a hospital in Sherwood Park.

Mr. Parker said he could not say when a start would be made if the land became available.

"But it shouldn't be long," he said. "We're short of auxiliary beds right now and if left too long, costs will only rise."

Mr. Parker said the only thing the board was asking of council was assistance in locating a site.

He said any deficit the hospital incurred in operation would be partially paid for by the town's taxpayers, but this would be the case no matter where the hospital was established.

"When there is a deficit in an auxiliary hospital, the whole hospital district makes it up," he said. "As St. Albert is part of the district, it pays right now when there is a deficit in an auxiliary hospital."

Mr. Parker said, however, that deficits in the auxiliary hospital field were relatively minor. He said government grants pretty well kept things even.

Mr. Parker said the hospital would have at least 100 beds because it wasn't economical to build one any smaller. He said that size was still in the planning stages, but that if it were found that the area needed a larger hospital, a larger hospital would be built.

"The hospital would also be an asset for the town," Mr. Parker said, "in that it would create more employment."

All eyes on ditch

Northwestern Utilities recently dug a deep ditch up the north side of St. Winston Churchill Avenue to install a high-pressure line. And workers probably never realized how close a scrutiny they were getting from some eyes.

Both Councilors R. G. Wheatley and Frank Lukay were prepared to broach the matter under new business at Monday night's meeting. Councilor Wheatley got there first.

He wanted to know if council had any assurance that the gas company would reconstruct the boulevard as closely as possible to what it was when it began digging. Mayor Gibson suggested that it would be up to the town to ensure this. He also suggested that Councilor Wheatley keep an eye on it.

Councilor Wheatley said he would be Councilor Lukay indicated he would be, too.

Club Mocombo fire confined to attic

Fire caused by a short circuit in electrical wiring in the attic caused an estimated $1,000 damage to the Club Mocombo on Saturday afternoon.

The alarm was turned in by a secretary in the nearby Calgary Power office at 12:55 p.m. after she noticed smoke pouring from vents in the roof.

"It was a hot one," Fire

Chief Fred Tetarenko said. "Another 10 or 15 minutes and there might not have been any more Club Mocombo."

Chief Tetarenko and 13 of the department's volunteers were on the scene with two pumper trucks as employees of the club, having been informed of the fire by a passerby, were putting fire extinguishers into action.

Firemen had to cut holes in the roof to allow hot gases and smoke to escape and also to allow them access to the fire. They kept the fire to the attic but it was an hour and 20 minutes before the all-out was sounded as sparks stubbornly continued to smolder in insulation.

A wedding reception scheduled for the afternoon had to be switched to the Community League Hall but a 25th anniversary celebration set for the evening went on as scheduled as electricians installed temporary lighting.

Playschool age limit clarified

St. Albert Co-operative Playschool is prepared to operate three classes containing a total of 75 children. President Mrs. Una Gibson said Monday.

Mrs. Gibson said it was at first thought that one class of 25 would be sufficient but now it is already oversubscribed.

Mrs. Gibson said that after a Gazette article concerning the playschool last week her phone almost "rang off the hook."

She said, however, that most of the calls came from mothers who thought the playschool was a babysitting or nursery service.

Mrs. Gibson said the playschool will be for children who will be five years old before Jan. 31 of next year. It had been reported that it would be for children four years old before Dec. 31 of this year.

The playschool will be held in the Clubhouse with each child attending three times a week. Cost will be $8 a month for each child.

Hospital right on schedule

Construction of the 100-bed Sturgeon General Hospital is proceeding right on schedule.

Egon Hansen, superintendent of the project for Harmsin Construction Ltd., said Monday the building will be closed in by the end of August. Bricklayers at present are enclosing the penthouse.

He said about 60 men are working on the project at present but this figure will climb sharply in September when most of the sub-trades will be on the job.

Mr. Hansen said the company wanted to get a start on sewer lines and landscaping but couldn't make a move until the town put in its section of the sewer and water lines.

He got welcome news from town council meeting Monday where it was announced that a start would be made by the town on Aug. 5.

W. J. Francel and Associates Consulting Engineering Ltd. estimated it could take 20 working days to complete the installation, but if all goes well it could take quite a bit less time.

A water line leading from a fire hydrant is servicing the site at present.

The hospital is expected to be ready for occupancy in June, 1970.

Council notes

Council received a letter from the Alberta Safety Council that it had been recognized along with Grande Prairie, Wataskwin and Camrose as urban centres which had been fatality free in 1968.

Councillor J. J. Bakker, however, felt this was more good luck than good management.

"An Inch," he said, "car often be the difference between injury and death."

Mayor Gibson moved that a copy of the letter be forwarded to the local detachment of the RCMP, Council concurred.

A Homemakers Service for St. Albert got approval in principle from council Monday night.

Mrs. Myrna Fyfe, president of the organization headed a delegation of Mrs. Delela Killackey, Mrs. Sepkja Nymeyer, Mrs. Gerry Billingsley and Mrs. Doris Yuskiew.

Council had included $10,000 in its budget for such an organization but withheld final approval until it had a chance to study the mechanics of the financing.

Of the $10,000, $8,000 would be recoverable in government grants and council wanted to ensure that this

Mrs. Fyfe said the service would be operated for a one-year trial period. There would be a full-time supervisor, one full-time homemaker and several part time homemakers.

The service would offer help at a nominal fee to people in need.

This week St. Albert will be playing Royal Glenora in the Brower Shield Tournament and the matches will be played at home at 7 o'clock on Wednesday and at Glenora on Thursday evening.

Councillor R. G. Wheatley suggested to council Monday night that the possibility of obtaining the rodeo grounds from the Oblate Fathers be explored.

"The Kinsmen rodeo is becoming a big attraction and the site is ideal, with the hillside eliminating the cost of bleachers," Mr. Wheatley said.

"I think the town should look into the possibility of purchasing the grounds as a permanent site for the event."

Councillor Wheatley suggested the grounds could then be put into shape so that "rain would not turn it into a slough."

Councillor Rene Kam-bourff suggested that the Kinsmen Club be contacted to see what steps it had taken to attempt to purchase the land. The club had been unable to swing a deal for the land some time ago.

SWIMMING

Registration for the openings left in the two sessions of lessons in August is scheduled for Wednesday, July 30 from 3 - 7 p.m. in the Clubhouse. As Monday, Aug. 4th is a Civic Holiday, lessons in the first session will start on Tuesday, Aug. 5th. The lesson missed will be rescheduled. Note that according to the schedule previously published, the Saturday schedule will be in operation on Aug. 4.

A mile swim will be held on Sunday, Aug. 3 at 9 p.m. Anyone wishing to test their stamina should register for this at the pool as soon as possible.

Arrangements are being made for recreational swimming sessions for the handicapped and their families. Enquiries may be made by phoning the department of parks and recreation at 599-6601.

On Sunday, Aug. 10 an officials' clinic will be held in the evening at the swimming pool. Parents of members of the Swim Club will be receiving notification at a later date.

A combined Red Cross Examiners' Clinic and Instructors' Refresher Course will be held on the morning of Saturday, Aug. 9. (The public swimming session from 9 - 12 noon is cancelled for that day only). The instructors' course will afford the opportunity for the renewal of qualifications and the examiners' clinic is open to anyone who has passed the Red Cross instructors' course during the last two years. More details of these special courses will be announced later. In the meantime, enquiries can be made at the pool where registrations are being taken.

The following young people were successful in passing the recent Bronze Medallion course: Ernie Byl, Brenda and Matt Gibson, Don McLaughlin and Linda Years. If there is sufficient interest another Bronze Medallion course as well as a senior leader and instructors' course will be held in August. Please register at the pool.

The St. Albert Swim Club travelled to Hinton last week and where the swim meet on Sunday had to be called off at the half-way point because of rain. At that time, St. Albert was third in a "field" of seven. Our local team is really coming on strong in the competitive swimming world. On Sunday next, members of the club will be participating in a meet at Fort Saskatchewan and two weeks from then they will be hosting the Central "B" Regional meet.

The swimathon undertaken and organized by the Swim Club was a huge success

Marketing Milk In New Container

Milk sold in plastic film pouches, introduced to the Canadian market only a year ago, "will skim the cream off the milk container market within five years," according to Marketing, national advertising newspaper.

One estimate is that within five years, 40 per cent of all milk sales will be in pouches. These pouches - that is, three inner quart pouches packed in plastic film which in turn are packaged in a polyethylene bag - are now being used by more than 50 dairies in Canada.

Pouches are reported to be cutting into the glass and plastic jug container market and have been accepted by consumers because they are easily disposed of, don't have to be returned and take up less refrigerator space.

Stores apparently like them too, says Marketing, for ease of handling, elimination of bottle returns and breakage, while dairies say they have reduced packaging costs.

Bantam baseball

to resume

Bantam baseball, forced to the sidelines for two weeks as holidays left some teams without enough players to take the field, will resume Thursday.

Dodgers will be at home to the Pirates on Diamond 8 at Sir Alexander Mackenzie School and Senators will be home to Angels at Diamond 9 on the same grounds.

Dodgers and Senators are tied for first place in the league, each with four wins and a loss. Pirates and Angels are on the bottom of the heap, each with one win and four losses.

All four teams will be in action again on Thursday and then play Tuesday and Thursday of next week. The playoffs, involving all four teams, are expected to get under way on August 11.

Anyone wishing to join the league should show up at Mackenzie diamond tonight or Thursday. After Thursday's games, rosters will be frozen and no new players will be allowed.

When you see how some people work you wonder what they will do when they retire.

RIFLEMAN IAN SKOGSTEAD
... he'll represent Alberta

St. Albert marksman to represent Alberta

A St. Albert marksman will compete in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association's 87th annual rifle match in Ottawa in August.

Ian Skogstead, 27, of 9 Stanley Drive, won a spot on the 24-member team that will represent Alberta at the shoot-off at the Comaught Ranges.

Ian, who has only been shooting in competition for a year, scored 887 points for 200 rounds in the provincial trials held at the Sarcee Ranges in Calgary.

He will compete in the marksmen section of the championships, which is for shooters just starting out in serious competition. Other categories are sharpshooters, experts and masters, going upwards in that order.

All competitors use 7.62 cal. NATO target rifles. They are comparable to .308 Winchester.

Rounds are fired from 200 to 1,000 yards. Five points are scored for a bullseye, four for an inner and so on. Top score for the 200 rounds would be 1,000.

Ian said he has hunted a little, but mainly with small-bore rifles such as the .22 cal. He became interested in shooting a little more than a year ago in Calgary. When he was transferred to Edmonton by Canadian General Electric a year ago, he joined the Edmonton Garrison Rifle Association.

Top prize money will be $150 with $100 going to the second-place finisher and $50 each to the semi-finalists.

Albert Hauptman of the Bruin Inn has donated a trophy which will be up for annual competition, with the winning team getting its name inscribed upon it.

WILDERNESS OUTWARD BOUND PILOT PROJECT

For Young Men 17 - 21

August 17 to 31

A new outdoor recreation program will be introduced to Alberta this summer. Under the direction of the Outward Bound Steering Committee of Alberta in conjunction with the Recreation Branch, Alberta Department of Youth, a wilderness Outward Bound pilot project will get underway at Collie Creek in the Willmore Wilderness park area, August 17 to 31.

A rigorous outdoor camp and field trip program for young men age 17 to 21 is planned around such activities as mountaineering, rock climbing, orienteering, forest fire prevention, first aid and rescue service training, wilderness familiarization and survival skills.

Oilers finish in 2nd place

St. Albert Oilers wound up the regular Oilfield Baseball League schedule on a winning note Sunday, defeating Drayton Valley of the Western Division 4-3 to lock up second place in the Eastern Division.

Leduc Oilers finished on top of the Eastern division but Oilers maintained a steady pace throughout the season to hang tightly to second and make coach Bob Mulloy's preseason prediction come true.

Mulloy never cast an eye on top spot but confidently said his club would come in second.

Calmar Angels finished third; Winterburn Tomahawks were fourth and Edmonton Eagles were fifth. St. Albert, Calmar and Winterburn will now meet in a round-robin playoff to decide who will go against Leduc in the division final.

Leduc received a bye into the final as it is entered in the provincial playoffs. The same held true for Warburg in the Western Division.

St. Albert was to have played host to Calmar at Mission Park Diamond tonight in the first game of the round-robin, which will see each team play the others twice.

But Calmar couldn't make it so the game will be rescheduled. Other St. Albert playoff dates are: Aug. 13, at Calmar; Aug. 17, at home to Winterburn; Aug. 20, at Winterburn.

Oilers won Sunday's game in the ninth inning, scoring one run to break a 3-3 deadlock. Chester Cunningham opened the inning with a double, moved to third on

Arnold Bailey's single and scored on George Fraser's line shot past third base. Oilers had taken a 2-0 lead in the first inning and led 3-1 after the third. Drayton Valley tied it in the sixth, sending Oilers' starting pitcher Hank Reinbold to the showers in the process. Fred Resler put out the fire, however, and pitched shutout ball the rest of the route to pick up the win.

Minor ball playoffs in Sept.

A playoff to determine the St. Albert Lions Club's Little Canadian Baseball League championship will be held in September.

League Chairman Perry Billingsley said he would call a meeting of coaches later this month to decide what form the playoff will take.

Pirates will represent the Sturgeon League, Expos the Mission League and Angels the Grandin League.

A father and son banquet will be held in the latter part of September but it may follow a different format than most.

If Mr. Billingsley has his way, it will be an outdoor barbecue in Lions Park. He feels the event has outgrown facilities available in St. Albert as there could be more than 500 persons present. About 300 youngsters participated in the baseball program.

Mr. Billingsley will broach the subject to the Lions tonight. He will attempt to get them and the Knights of Columbus to handle the catering.

Rankel rink wins K-Days Bonspiel

Jean Rankel of St. Albert won the primary event in the Klondike Days Bonspiel at the Balmoral Curling Club last week.

Mrs. Rankel, a member of rinks that represented St. Albert on the mixed and ladies playoff trials last spring, defeated Mona Johnson 6-7 in the final.

Curling with Mrs. Rankel were Betty Crozier, Bunny Porowski and Pat Hudson. Armand Donalds of St. Albert reached the semi-final of A event before bowing out. Donalds, who had his son Jan curling lead for him, trailed Zane Kotyk of the city coming home and just ran out of rocks.

Kotyk, skipping a rink entered under Bob Kleinmeyer's name, went on to take top prize.

It was almost a double win for Mrs. Rankel's family. Her father, Ken Samuels, lost to Ron Anton in an all-Edmonton B event final.

Firemens float wins

St. Albert Volunteer Fire Brigade's float took first prize in the comedy section of the Klondike Days Parade in Edmonton on July 17.

The float, showing the old and new methods of bathing and beating the heat, was manned by Harry Pudowski, Frank Picard, Claude Valliere and Al Cairns with assistance from Bernadette Ricard.

Gerard Valliere was the driver.

It was a very wet day for all, including anyone who ventured too close to the float.
